between

and

the Government of New Zealand

for the Sharing of Visa and Immigration Information

PREAMBLE:

The Government of the United States of America and the Government of New Zealand (hereinafter referred to individually as "the United States", "New Zealand" and "Party" or collectively as "the Parties");

NOTING the importance of a new approach to migration that takes into account the global patterns of both regular and irregular migration and the increasingly sophisticated methods for identity fraud and abuse of the Parties' immigration laws;

RECOGNIZING that border security and border management are significantly enhanced by cooperation and collaboration;

RECOGNIZING that the United States and New Zealand agreed to biometric exchange for law enforcement purposes under the Agreement on Enhancing Cooperation in Preventing and Combating Crime done at Washington on March 20, 2013 ("PCC Agreement");

EMPHASIZING that it is critically important to have timely access to current and accurate information to inform inadmissibility assessments or other immigration-related determinations that are vital to the common security of the United States and New Zealand;

CONSIDERING that the effective administration and enforcement of the immigration laws of the United States and New Zealand are important to protect the health and safety of their populations, to maintain the security of their societies, and to promote international justice and security by denying access to their territories to persons who are criminals or security risks; and

CONVINCED that greater cooperation through the exchange of information can make the Parties' actions in achieving these objectives more effective;

HAVE AGREED as follows:

ARTICLE 1

pertaining to visa, admissibility, or immigration compliance actions and/or decisions rendered in accordance with or relevant to the immigration laws of the respective Parties. In circumstances described in Articles 2(C) and 2(D) of this Agreement, Information also includes such data that pertain to Nationals, including citizens, of a Party. Information may include Personal Data, statistical data, or both.

- C. "Personal Data" means any Information, biographic, biometric or both, relating to an identified or identifiable natural person (the "data subject").

ARTICLE 2

- (i) Using Information in order to administer or enforce the respective immigration laws of the Parties;
 - (ii) Furthering the prevention, detection, or investigation of acts that would constitute a crime under the laws of either Party; and

(iii) Facilitating a Party's determination of eligibility for a visa, admission, or other immigration benefit, or of whether there are grounds for removal.

C. A Party to this Agreement shall only provide Information about its Nationals under an implementing arrangement to this Agreement and when such Information is relevant and necessary to support an identifiable immigration decision in the receiving country, and the sharing of such Information is compatible with domestic law and policy.

D. A Party to this Agreement shall only provide Information about a National of the other Party under an implementing arrangement to this Agreement and in response to a specific immigration matter in the receiving country to which the individual is directly tied, where the sharing of such Information is compatible with domestic law and policy.

E. This Agreement shall not affect any existing agreements or arrangements between the two Parties, including the PCC Agreement. No provision in this Agreement shall be interpreted in a manner that would restrict practices relating to the sharing of Information that are already in place between the two Parties. Where a request for data falls within the scope of both the PCC Agreement and this Agreement, the Parties may provide Information under the terms of either agreement.

F. This Agreement shall not give rise to rights, privileges or benefits on the part of any other party, private or public, including to obtain, suppress, or exclude any evidence or to impede the sharing of Personal Data. Rights existing independently of this Agreement are not affected.

ARTICLE 3

The exchange, storage, and retention of Information by the respective Parties as set forth in the implementing arrangements shall be subject to the obligations set forth in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5
USE AND DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION
